AIxCrypto Co-CEO Jerry Wang Shares Weekly Investor Update: Hub Season 2 Launch, and Social Growth Momentum

February 23, 2026

LOS ANGELES, CA (Feb. 23, 2026) /PRNewswire/ — AIxCrypto Inc. (NASDAQ: AIXC) (“AIxC” or the “Company”), a technology company focused on Embodied AI (EAI) infrastructure, today shared a weekly business update from Co-CEO Jerry Wang.

AIxC Hub – Season 2 Launch and Ecosystem Expansion

AIxC Hub, the core interactive platform of the AIxC ecosystem, has officially entered Season 2, marking the next phase of its ecosystem evolution.

Season 2 introduces updated engagement mechanics and expanded interactive modules, including new Tenki-based features designed to further integrate AI agent-driven experiences within the Hub environment. Additional details regarding Season 2 playbooks, ecosystem rewards, and participation guidelines will be released next week.

AIxC is pleased to share that its official X account has reached 53,417 followers, with engagement rates increasing by 94% over recent weeks and total impressions approaching 600,000 during the same period, reflecting continued growth in global visibility and community engagement.

Executive Communication and Strategic Outlook

During the week, Jerry Wang shared reflections on AIxC’s progress, reviewing strategic execution and forward-looking initiatives for 2026.

As part of a strategic refinement, the Company has elected to concentrate its resources on its Real-World Asset (RWA) and Embodied AI (EAI) strategy, to fully support FFAI EAI initiatives, including intelligent electric vehicle and AI robotics. AIxC will transition away from certain initiatives, including the BesTrade AI Agent and Digital Asset AI Management modules, in order to enhance operational focus and capital discipline around its core infrastructure objectives.

This strategic concentration is intended to strengthen AIxC’s positioning at the intersection of RWA and EAI and to align execution efforts with areas where the Company sees the greatest long-term relevance.

Looking ahead, AIxC will continue leveraging high-quality, multimodal real-world behavioral data to power the next generation of AI-integrated blockchain applications. Positioned at the intersection of AI, RWA, and crypto infrastructure, AIxC is building compliant asset rails that connect on-chain systems with real-world signals and scalable distribution. The goal is to bring credible RWAs on-chain, enable smarter AI-native financial and consumer applications, and create practical utility for users, partners, and shareholders.
