AIxCrypto Co-CEO Jerry Wang Shares Weekly Investor Update: EAI Infrastructure Strategic Partnership

February 9, 2026

LOS ANGELES (Feb. 9, 2026)— AIxCrypto Inc. (NASDAQ: AIXC, "AIxC" or the "Company"), a U.S.-Nasdaq listed company dedicated to building an ecosystem that integrates AI and blockchain while bridging Web2 and Web3, today shared a weekly business update from Jerry Wang, Co-CEO of AIxC.

“I’d like to take this opportunity to share how AIxC will support and enable FF EAI-Robotics and, vice versa, how the FF EAI-Robotics business will support building the AIxC Web3 ecosystem.

First, robotics owned by our users will serve as physical-world gateways into the AIxC ecosystem—DePIN endpoints that actively contribute to the ecosystem. This has the potential to position AIxC infrastructure as the foundational rail for bridging physical value on-chain.

Second, the EAI Brain & Open-Source and Open Platform has the potential to contribute to AIxC building a more robust on-chain execution and data availability layer. It could bring developers and users into AIxC’s ecosystem, creating a highly engaged, high-quality Web3 user base.

Lastly, AIxC is provided with high-quality, multimodal real-world behavioral data through Faraday Future’s (NASDAQ: FFAI; FF) EAI Decentralized Data Factory strategy. I am excited to announce that AIxC has entered into a non-binding letter of intent with FF EAI-Robotics to evaluate opportunities to collaborate in Web3.”

Market Commentary

In regard to the AIXC stock, we are aware of recent volatility in our stock price. As with many publicly traded companies operating at the intersection of emerging technologies, short-term market movements may reflect broader macroeconomic conditions, shifts in risk appetite, and overall market sentiment rather than changes in our underlying business fundamentals.

The Company remains focused on executing its long-term strategy, advancing product development, and strengthening operational fundamentals. We continue to prioritize regulatory compliance, disciplined capital management, and transparent communication with our shareholders, and we believe that sustained execution will be the most important driver of long-term value creation.
